v.

THOMAS CONWAY

Crim. No. 24-cr-00003-SM-AJ

DEFENDANT’S MOTION FOR HEARING ON COMPETENCY

The defendant, Thomas Conway, moves this Court to schedule this matter for a competency hearing. As grounds, Mr. Conway has been examined by a forensic psychologist who has opined that he is not competent to stand trial. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241(a), the court shall grant a motion for a hearing to determine competency “if there is reasonable cause to believe that the defendant may presently be suffering from a mental disease or defect rendering him mentally incompetent to the extent that he is unable to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him or to assist properly in his defense.” The psychologist who examined Mr. Conway is of the opinion that he suffers from a mental health disorder that has rendered him incompetent. A copy of the psychologist’s report has been provided to the government.
